Our transformational acquisition: Coveris Americas

Our transformational acquisition: Coveris Americas

Summary of client & plant visits

- Since the acquisition, we have visited all but one of the Coveris locations, representing over 3,000 employees.
- Employees are generally very engaged and excited to have joined the TC family. The presentation of our value-based culture is met with enthusiasm.
- From a client perspective, we have visited 15 clients representing ~$400M (41%) of revenues.
- Overall, client reception to the change of ownership has been positive as they view TC Transcontinental as providing stability in ownership and long-term commitment to the business.
- Excellent platform of equipment.

Scaling opportunity of film manufacturing

- Acquisition of a strong expertise in technical films production that enables insourcing of film manufacturing
 - Significant high-end blown extrusion capacity for multi-layer barrier film (up to 11 layers)
 - Extensive extrusion lamination capabilities
 - Cast extrusion capabilities
- These capabilities will lead to
 - Cost competitiveness
 - Competitive differentiation
 - Product development
 - Innovation of sealant technology

Value creation to be enhanced by more than US $20M annual cost savings synergies to be realized over the first 24 months following the closing of the acquisition

Economies of scale

- Procurement of raw materials

Sharing of best practices & integration

- Vertical integration of film manufacturing
- Insourcing of prepress and plate-making operations

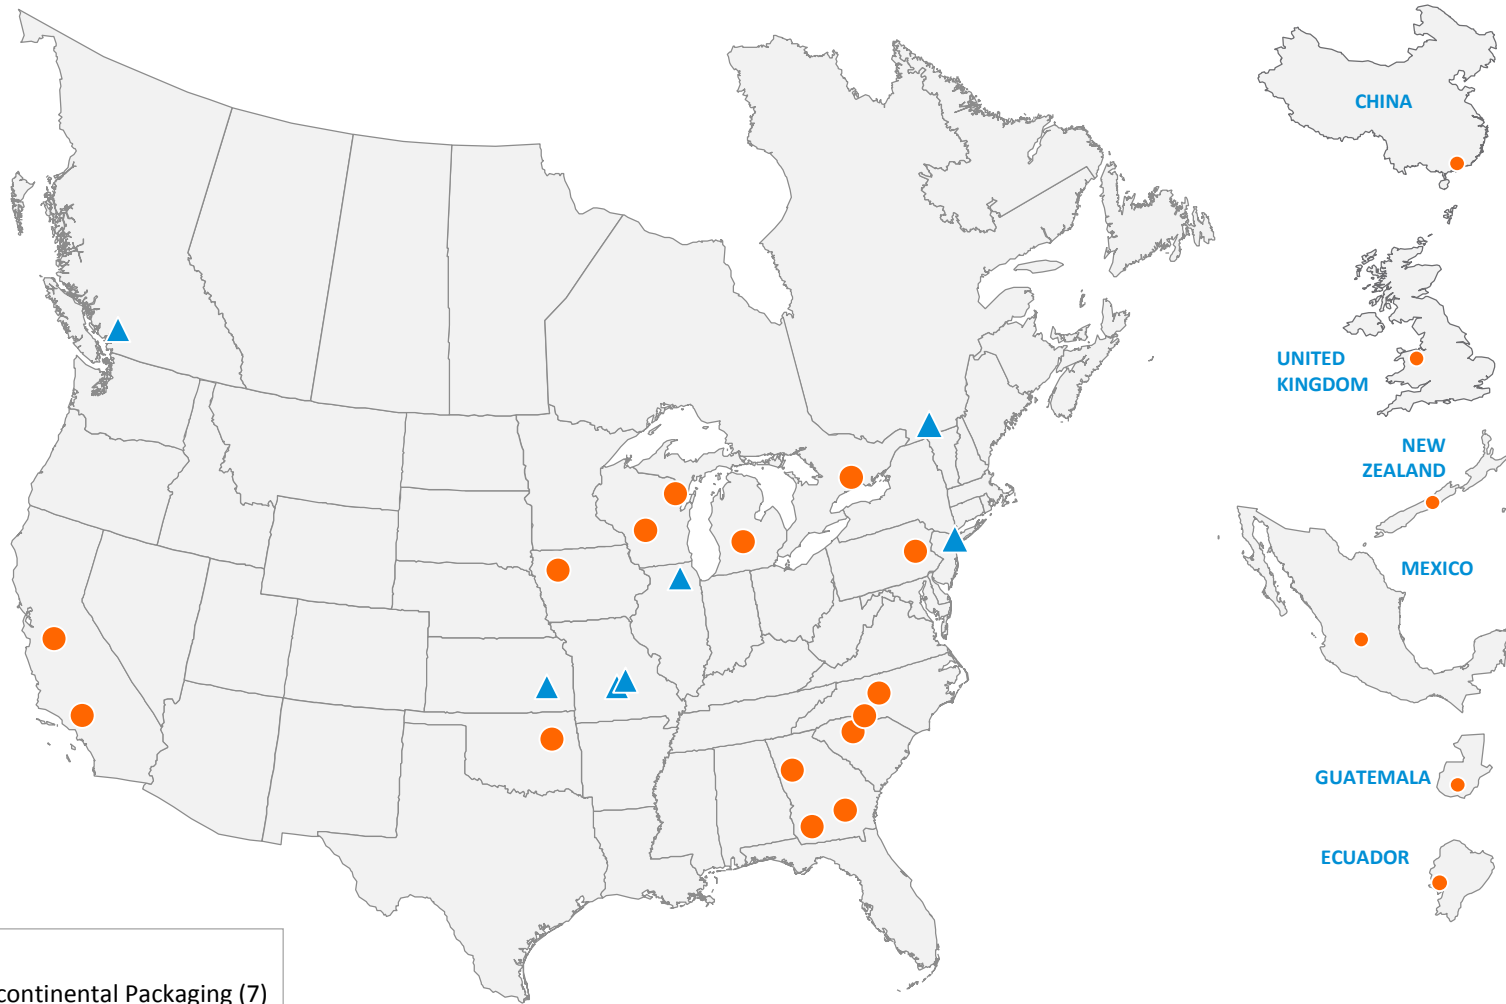

Cost saving synergies estimated at more than US $20 million

Printing Sector: Efficient operator

Continued optimization of our printing platform

Printing non-cash EBITDA will decrease by $25M in F2019 compared to 2018 LTM.

* 2017 and 2018 reflect favorable changes in Management fees of approximately $6M resulting the split of the Printing & Packaging group into two sectors. 2017 adjusted EBITDA excludes $100M gain due to the accelerated recognition of deferred revenue related to the contract to print the San Francisco Chronicle

Strong cash flow generating capacity
